

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henry Schoening

The A. H. Schoenings To Observe Golden Wedding On March 5

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henry Schoening of South Friendship Road, Paducah Rt. 5, will celebrate their golden anniversary on March 5, with a reception in Fellowship Hall of Bellview Baptist Church on Old Mayfield Road. The hours will be from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. and all of their friends and relatives are invited.

There will be a program of songs, golden years in pictures and refreshments will be served.

The Schoenings were married March 4, 1917, at a Methodist church in Springdale, Ark., with the Rev. Will Piper officiating.

The couple's attendants were Miss Lillian Fischer, sister of the bride, and Clarence Fischer, brother of the bride, both deceased.

Mrs. Schoening is the daughter of the late John Martin Fischer and Elizabeth Butterfield Fischer, also deceased.

A retired engineer for the Illinois Central Railroad, after 40 years of service, Mr. Schoening is the son of Andrew Peter Schoening and Mary Emaline Cooper Schoening, both deceased.

Their children are Mrs. Clara Elizabeth McSparin of South Bend, Ind.; Mrs. Edith Earlene Taylor, 428 Adams St.; Clarence Raymond Schoening, Milwaukee, Wis., and Arthur Schoening Jr. of Paducah Rt. 8. One son, Earnest Schoening is deceased. They have 10 grandchildren.